Poole Park

What a pleasure to sail at the lake today in superb conditions. An excellent course was set at the park end of the home lake with a certain amount of jeopardy as the first three marks were rounded to port and the following two to starboard. The results could not have been much closer with three different winners. Phill and Chris had identical scores after five races and we left the lake wondering how the tie break rule would adjudicate.....over to you Phil C

Sailwave used RRS App A, Section 8.2, a "count back". You won the last race, Chris, so you win the tie break. Phil C
